

12-1929

Institute's Trial Board Expels Member

American Institute of Accountants. Trial Board

Follow this and additional works at: <https://egrove.olemiss.edu/jofa>

Part of the Accounting Commons

Recommended Citation

American Institute of Accountants. Trial Board (1929) "Institute's Trial Board Expels Member," Journal of Accountancy. Vol. 48 : Iss. 6 , Article 6.

Available at: <https://egrove.olemiss.edu/jofa/vol48/iss6/6>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Archival Digital Accounting Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Journal of Accountancy by an authorized editor of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

Institute's Trial Board Expels Member

The council of the American Institute of Accountants at a meeting held in Washington, D. C., September 16, 1929, adjourned to convene as a trial board for the purpose of adjudicating charges preferred against Andrew J. Quigley of Illinois, a member of the Institute. Thirty-six members of the trial board were present. The presiding officer was Vice-president Lewis G. Fisher.

Mr. Quigley, accompanied by his counsel, William Lister, was introduced.

Charges were presented to the effect that Andrew J. Quigley had been guilty of an act discreditable to the profession in violation of paragraph (e) of section 4 of article V of the by-laws of the American Institute of Accountants in that he had continued to hold the position of president of the American University of Commerce and had issued advertisements of said university stating that he was president thereof when solicitors of that university had frequently made misrepresentations to prospective students, and that he had admitted that he could not control the actions of such solicitors in that regard.

Evidence supporting the charges was presented and the history of the case was explained.

Counsel for the respondent presented his answer and called upon Mr. Quigley as witness in his own defense.

At the conclusion of the trial the trial board went into executive session. It was resolved that Andrew J. Quigley be found guilty as charged. It was also resolved that he be expelled from the Institute and that in publishing the report of the proceedings his name be included. These resolutions were carried without dissenting vote.

The trial board then adjourned.